

Birmingham KEGS GA Branch Events 2011-2012

Introduction to GIS PGCE Workshop
King Edward VI Five Ways School
Monday 3rd October 2011 3pm- 5pm

Post 16 Student GIS Enrichment Day
King Edward VI Five Ways School
Thursday 17th November 2011 9am- 3pm
A day of practical experience using GIS and talks on GIS focussing on its use and Extreme Weather and Inequalities
Dr Joseph Kerski, Education Manager, ESRI, US
Dr Sylvia Knight, Head of Educational Services, Royal Meteorological Society
Mr Andy Newing, PhD Student University of Leeds
Mr Robert Lang, Geography Teacher King Edward VI Five Ways School

'Living with volcanoes - hazards, impacts and mitigation' Lecture
King Edward VI Five Ways School
Thursday 24th November 12pm-1pm
Lecture given by Professor Fiona Tweed, Geography and Environment, Faculty of Sciences, Staffordshire University

"Rural Issues and solutions" Lecture
King Edward VI Five Ways School
Wednesday 22nd February 12pm-1pm
Dr Richard Yarwood, Lecturer in Geography and Admissions and School Liaison Officer, University of Plymouth

GCSE Extreme Environments Enrichment Day
King Edward VI Five Ways School
Wednesday 14th March 12pm- 4pm
Hot Deserts: Jane Labous, Award winning Writer & Broadcaster specialising in Africa
Polar Environments: Jamie Buchanan-Dunlop, director Digital Explorer, working with Caitlin Arctic Survey
Mountains: Andrew Wilkinson, Mountaineer The Ends of the Earth
Illustrated with reference to Mts. Dinali (Arctic), Vinson (Antarctic), Everest (Himalayas). The talk will also make reference to cold environments / sustainability.

'Radical solutions to environmental crises' Lecture
King Edward VI Camp Hill Girls School
Wed. 21st March 2012. at 4pm-5pm.
Lecture given by Dr. Jenny Pickerill, Senior Lecturer in Human Geography, Dept of Geography, University of Leicester

All talks/events at King Edward VI Five Ways School unless otherwise stated.