

Programme of Events 2009-10

Geographical Association – Norfolk Branch Programme of events in conjunction with RGS East Anglian Region*

Norfolk GA and RGS East Anglian Region operate a reciprocal arrangement whereby members of each society gain free entry to branch events

Date	Time	Event	Venue	Details	Entry	Contact
14 th September 2009	7.30pm	GA How the Norfolk coastline has changed over the last 1000 years Jonathon Hooton Head of Geography Notre Dame High School	Easton College	This talk will cover the past 1000yrs and will consider natural and man-made changes along the North and East coast of Norfolk. Recommended for 6th Form Students	Free to members £3 visitor fee	David Stannard (01603 453118)
September 2009 tbc	3pm-5pm	GA Norfolk GA - PGCE Students Get together	School of Education UEA	Informal event for geographers to meet up, light hearted quiz, promoting links between PGCE Geographers and the Norfolk GA branch Light refreshments provided	Open invitation please let David know if you intend to come	David Stannard (01603 453118)
12 th October 2009	7.30pm	GA Mary Keall Evening Adventures of a Geography teacher Ashley Hale	Sewell Park College (Blyth Jex site)	The meeting will be held in the building where Mary Keall taught and was Head of Geography Hear reports from Mary Keall Award recipients and the geographical adventures of the current Head of Geography Ashley Hale.	Free to members £3 visitor fee	David Stannard (01603 453118)
7 th October 2009 Also 8th October 2009 same times @ Stamford (£15)	3.00pm/ 8.00pm	RGS Regional Theatres Programme An Afternoon/Evening with Ben Fogle	Kings Lynn Arts Centre	From Taransay in the Outer Hebrides to the Marathon Des Sables; rowing across the Atlantic and racing to the South Pole with James Cracknell: Countryfile to Wild in Africa; join much loved presenter Ben for an evening of adventure as he recounts his expeditions around the globe.	RGS-IBS members and one guest £8 each	Kings Lynn Arts Centre (01553 764 864)
12 th November 2009	7.30pm	RGS Trek Global Nick and Lesley Poole	Norwich Kent Room Assembly House	They got caught up in turmoil, suffered sickness, endured mechanical gremlins in the jungle and had one or two anxious moments. Now, having covered 89,000 miles on a second-hand BMW motorbike on a global adventure that took almost three years to complete.	Free to members £3 visitor fee	Mike Hand RGS (01603 616427)
16th November 2009	4pm for 4.30pm	GA Worldwise Local Quiz sponsored by JARROLD The John Jarrold Trust	Easton College	The challenging geographical quiz for GCSE students. Part of the national GA's Worldwise programme.	Entrance Fee £2 Free to member schools	David Stannard (01603 453118)

Date	Time	Event	Venue	Details	Entry	Contact
3 rd December 2009	7.30pm	RGS Ten Slides in Ten Minutes	Assembly Rooms Norwich	Contact Mike Hand if you wish to show slides. Festive food and drinks will be available.	Free to members £3 visitor fee	Mike Hand RGS (01603 616427)
18th January 2010	7.30pm	GA From field to fork – an insight into modern day food production and how to supply the top supermarkets Stuart Mills Watton Produce Sponsors of this lecture	Easton College	Stuart is Sales Manager for Watton Produce, they process vegetables from much of Norfolk and further afield including Scotland and Israel. Stuart will talk about managing the logistics of growing, delivering, processing and packing produce from field to fork and meeting the demands of today's supermarkets across the UK. Recommended for 6th Form Students	Free to members £3 visitor fee	David Stannard (01603 453118)
5 th February 2010	10am- 2pm	GA 6th Form Conference	UEA	A conference for AS and A2 students run in conjunction with Geography PGCE students.	Free to members (£20 non member schools fee)	Angela Gray Wymondham College /David Stannard (01603 453118)
15 th March 2010	7.30pm	GA Presidential Alan Parkinson 'Very flat, Norfolk' – geographies of place	Easton College	Our President, creator of 'Geography Pages' will lead us in an exploration of how we develop our impressions of places, and what geography can do to help develop an understanding of 'PLACE' including a look at how they can be re-presented. Recommended for 6th Form Students	Free to members £3 visitor fee	David Stannard (01603 453118)
27 th April 2010	6.45pm 7.30pm	GA AGM Followed by a meal (tbc)	Easton College		Free to members £3 visitor fee	David Stannard (01603 453118)
June 2010	tbc	GA Summer Visit Pensthorpe	Meet point tbc		tbc	David Stannard (01603 453118)

*RGS spring lecture series and summer visits to be announced. See www.rgs.org/events or contact Mike Hand hands.on@talktalk.net

Subscriptions for Norfolk GA membership: single £10, Joint £15, Student £5.00 Schools £20.00 contact Douglas Waters for more details : dmw220576@hotmail.com For programme information contact David Stannard (01603 453118) For more information about the Geographical Association and geographical resources go to www.geography.org.uk/