

IB geography: assessment and exam technique

CPD Training Courses from the Geographical Association

London Tuesday 26 June 2012

Target audience

Post-16 IB geography teachers

Overview

This CPD course will help post-16 teachers, both new and experienced, reflect upon assessment in the IB diploma programme geography course. The 2009–17 syllabus will have just completed its second cycle (June 2012) and this one-day course will provide an excellent opportunity for teachers to reflect upon the new exam materials and begin preparing for the following school year.

Aims and outcomes

The course will investigate:

- How to prepare students for the external IB examinations
- How to make the most of the internal assessment report
- How to support students' extended essays
- Exam techniques and revision tips

The day will include presentations, group discussions and 'crowd-sourced' resources.

Presenter

Dr Kathleen Noreisch, Teacher of IB Diploma geography, MYP humanities and TOK at the International School of Berne, Switzerland
