

Leading through primary geography

CPD Training Courses
from the Geographical Association

London Thursday 24 May 2012
Ashford, Kent Friday 15 June 2012
York Tuesday 26 June 2012

Target audience

Primary teachers and subject leaders

Overview

This CPD course will help you raise the standard of geography teaching and learning in your class and school. Join us to develop your understanding of geography's core knowledge and skills and learn how the subject contributes to whole-school dimensions such as sustainability, global learning and learning outside the classroom. The day will include a mix of presentations, group discussion and practical activities, including some outdoor work.

Aims and outcomes

By the end of the day you will:

- have a better understanding of geography's core knowledge and skills and how they underpin creative learning
- know ways in which you can raise the standard of geography in your class and school
- understand how geography supports and contributes to the wider curriculum
- have a range of practical ideas for planning, assessing and teaching high-quality geography.

Presenter

Dr Paula Owens, Primary Quality Mark and Curriculum Development Leader,
