

Figure 3-5: Satellite pictures from the University of Dundee on 6, 7 and 8 January 2005 from the Advanced Very High Resolution Radiometer (AVHRR) polar orbiting satellite. The locations of a developing and then deepening depression are indicated. The position of the “conveyor belt” of warm moist air is also shown.

