LEADING A SUCCESSFUL GEOGRAPHY DEPARTMENT
FOR CURRENT AND ASPIRING HEADS OF DEPARTMENT

London Monday 16 November 2015
Birmingham Monday 27 June 2016

OVERVIEW
This course will explore how geography subject leaders can maximise the impact that they have on colleagues and students whilst leading their department through a time of rapid change. You will reflect upon what you are trying to achieve, critically assess the methods you employ and plan solutions to the issues you face in your schools.

AIMS AND OUTCOMES
• Develop and shape your ‘vision’ for geography
• Consider how to create and sustain a high-quality geography department in the context of current changes in education
• Become more confident in developing the profile of geography both within and outside of your school
• Discuss strategies to address particular issues in your school
